Highgate Jan 24 1840

My Dear Sir

I have received from Mr Burchell the Splendid Copy of Major Moneys accent & the excellent handwriting and Style in which it is executed induces me to beg to avail myself of your proffered kindness by obtaining for me a Copy of all that appeard in the Norwich paper respecting Grahams agent and whatever expence attends it I shall cheerfully remit — I have used every exertion to get the paragraph in the daily papers without effect but I hope to succeed with one of the Sunday journals

The Norwich paper you named has not been sent to me which I much regret — I have been confined to my room seven days with a severe attack of ~~them~~ rheumatic gout in the foot I sprained at Norwich and from the pain I endure am not myself but I have sense enough of your great kindness to subscribe myself —

your already much oblig
C Green

P N Scott Esqr

DSI

126 GREEN (Charles) [1785-1870], Aeronaut. A.L.S. TO P. N. SCOTT.
1p. 4to. Highgate: Jan. 24th, 1840 Fletcher-68 £6 6s

Saying that Burchill had sent "the splendid copy of Major Moneys ascent" & asking for a copy of what had appeared in the Norwich paper respecting Graham's ascent. He would try and get a paragraph in one of the Sunday journals.

Green made the first ascent with carburetted hydrogen gas in 1821. He constructed the great Nassau balloon.

116 GARNETT (Edward) [1868-1937], Author. A.L.S. TO E. C. BENTLEY, AUTHOR OF Trent's Last Case.

Written on a page torn from a notebook. Small 8vc. Edenbridge: n.d. £4 10s

Sending him a copy of a book, and asking him, if he agreed with the Preface to "pitch into the Censorship in the Outlook . . . There was an important movement against the Censhorship going on behind the scenes . . ."

117 GATTY (Margaret) [1807-1873], Writer for Children. A.L.S. FROM MRS. GATTY TO MISS THOMPSON; AND THREE A.L.S. FROM THE